

Chris Bray

Chris Bray grew up on Lynn Farm, Narembeen, purchased by parents Peter and Judith from great uncle E R Fitt a WW1 returned 10th Light Horseman.

Chris rowed for Wesley College in the 1969 Head of the River, attended Cunderdin Agricultural College; completed Electrical trade apprenticeship, commencing business as an Electrical Contractor and 40years on is still Company Director.

Chris attained rank of FCO at West Swan Bush Fire Brigade, served as Chairperson, Shire of Swan Training committee and State Training Advisory Committee and led the Shire of Swan contingent to the 1994 NSW Blue Mountains bush fires.

Chris is active with Narembeen Community Men's Shed and Historical Society, representing the Men's Shed on the Community Wellness Committee.

Chris is passionate about our community, maintaining and advancing the vibrancy of our unique Shire and town; as a councillor aims to integrate, present and promote ideas and input from all citizens.
