Over the Fence....

Hello Everyone

I and the rest of our community extend our heartfelt condolences to Julie Miller and family on the passing of Julie's mother, Jean Naylor of Wagin. Thinking of you and your loved ones, Julie.

Also remembering the recent passing of former locals Dot Sloss, Frank Gibson (Snr) and also Rusty Herridge. His name was Russell but everybody knew him as Rusty. Rusty had the cartage business for many years in Narembreen.

As The Fencepost goes to print today Narembreen has a fresh new Shire Council sitting for the first time after the elections on Saturday and the swearing in on Monday. Congratulations to all who nominated and/or were elected and thank you to those retiring Councillors for your past and continuing contribution to our town .

Wonderful to see Steve Fry home and looking good for the opening of the Wadderin Walk on Saturday . The day was very well attended and you can read elsewhere in this edition just how much work has been done and how interesting it is .

Corporate Bowls started last Thursday and seems to have been a great success with 16 teams nominating. The hotly contested results can be seen elsewhere in this edition as can this weeks draw. Even if you are not playing everyone is welcome to come and watch the fun and enjoy the sausage sizzle.

Please, please, please...

Fence Post requires any new sporting fixtures to be sent ASAP in order to include in the 'Coming Events' page for each edition. Thank you to those who have already sent these in.

'FARM WEEKLY' NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

It was so good to see the article in the Farm Weekly dated Thursday October 14 2021 about Caroline Robinson that we have included it in this edition. Thanks to the Farm Weekly .

Happy reading and enjoy your week

OPENING OF THE WADDERIN WILDLIFE WILDFLOWER WALKTRAIL

On Saturdays at 2pm a great crowd of approx. 70 people turned up to the opening of the popular wildflower walk trail. The inspiration behind this was Steve Fry and it was with great joy that Steve was able to attend and officially open the trail. President Brian Cusack welcomed everyone and began the long list of thanks.

Firstly thanking Natural Resource Management (NRM) for their continued support.

Chris Batty for his carpentry expertise in construction of the leaf shaped rotunda which provides a resting spot and boards with flower and animal identification details.

Peter Hall, Ben Hall and sons-in law Chris and Glen for work in every aspect of Wadderin.

All the committee members who continue to work tirelessly.

Community volunteers who offer all sorts of help at the drop of a hat.

Craig Kennedy who has done a lot of cementing at cost.

STEVE FRY without his vision, persistence and commitment this walk trail would not have happened. From securing funding from NRM to mapping the trails, designing the rotunda to resemble a gum leaf, sourcing and ordering supplies and designing the information boards- until ill health stopped him in his tracks and up stepped his daughter ALEX who was determined to see Steve's vision completed. She has been an absolute power of energy and drive.*

The project still has to have a combustible toilet installed and other minor improvements.

With our gratitude for his vision, Steve Fry and Alex cut the ribbon to officially open our newest and popular tourist attraction.

WELL DONE STEVE AND ALEX!

Wadderin President's Report 2021.

It is my pleasure to, once again, present my report on the year's happenings.

The inhabitants within the reserve continue to thrive with Jeff Short conducting regular trapping programs and reporting that numbers and general health of the animals is satisfactory. Once again I thank Jeff for his involvement and commitment to Wadderin.

Thanks to the regular and thorough fence inspections we have been able to continue our fox- and cat- free status. I can't stress enough the importance of keeping the ferals out and the excellent job you all do in making this happen. The maintenance and restocking of the wallaby feeders is another example of the ongoing tasks that are performed by Debbie, Bevan, Noel, Don and others. The commitment of everybody within the group in so many ways will certainly pay big dividends in the future.

The walk-trail is taking shape and, will, in time, become an attractive and popular attraction. It is already attracting visitors and it is not uncommon to see two or three vehicles parked there. At this stage I wish to acknowledge the vital role Steve Fry has played in its' development. If it hadn't been for his vision and efforts in attracting funding and generally driving the project there is no doubt this would not have become reality. Thanks must also be extended to Chris Batty for the work he did in the erection of the information rotunda. His expertize was invaluable.

I extend a special thank you to Peter Hall who has been involved in every major development this year, including the erection of the information bay, the moulding and installation of the concrete flyovers and will be a major player in the installation of the signs in the rotunda and the installation of the toilet at the walk-trail.

Dick Slade deserves mention for his efforts in trying to identify a suitable vehicle for conducting tours of the reserve. He has come up with a number of options, hopefully one of which will be suitable.

I extend my thanks to our Secretary, Peter Lines (read Lucy), for the excellent and efficient job they have done in conveying information to members. It has certainly made my task easy.

My thanks also to Steve Fry for the work he did as Treasurer up until his illness and Alan Wright for auditing our financials. Brian Cusack (President).

Getting to know Wheatbelt businesses

By MOLLIE TRACEY

CAROLINE Robinson knows business, particularly regional business.

Rather than having a business empire, Ms Robinson is more the entrepreneurial type as she prefers to start businesses, set them up for growth and hand them over for someone else to have success.

And she especially enjoys helping other business owners, which led her to establish the Wheatbelt Business Network (WBN), of which she is the chief executive officer.

Growing up in the Perth Hills, Ms Robinson had a connection with regional WA from a young age as her dad worked for Westfarmers and later Case IH.

Prior to moving to WA, her parents, who migrated from Kenya, spent some time farming in South America.

"My parents are very resourceful and their experiences raised my brothers and I to see change as an opportunity for growth," Ms Robinson said.

"There is a sense of authenticity in the country and the values that we share as rural communities are an important part of how I was brought up and how I would like my children to be raised."

Ms Robinson, husband Ian Robbo and two children, Charles, 7, and Annie, 5, live on a farm 75 kilometres east of Narembeen and farm with Robbo's parents John and Shannon Robinson, who are based at York.

When she moved to the farm, Ms Robinson started a contract business and worked with local government and community groups, mostly undertaking business cases, feasibility studies and community engagement work.

"Because I worked from home, I was seeking to connect and learn from other business owners and I also saw a need for a regional business association that could amplify and provide a united voice for businesses on key issues," she said.

"The business community of Merredin was very generous in their time and support for this concept and, together, with some local business leaders, we established the Wheatbelt Business Network in 2010."

WBN has grown to be one of the largest, if not the largest business network specifically dedicated to supporting regional businesses.

It represents more than 300 businesses across 44 Wheatbelt shires.

Ms Robinson said the growth had been organic, with its initial footprint of members around Merredin and Narembeen.

"Each of our members are so very important," she said.

"I hope that over the past 11 years, we have grown a support team around our members to help them succeed, created business connections across the Wheatbelt, influenced government policy and helped profile the Wheatbelt as a great place to work and live."

She said some highlights for WBN have been employing locals and growing the staff and, of course, initiating the first Wheatbelt-wide business awards, which occur bi-annually.

So why put in all the effort to start several businesses, only to pass them on?

Ms Robinson said starting a business from scratch gave her a thrill.

"Often the start-up phase is very intense, a lot of hours and effort, but it's the most exciting," she said.

"I enjoy thinking about the business concept and seeing it come to life."

She said by far her best business experience has been the Co-Op Cafe, Narembeen.

"With three local ladies - Sheree Thomas, Amy Handham and Bianca Corrie - we began a start-up cafe from scratch with funds from the Go Narembeen Progress Association," Ms Robinson said.

"I stepped down 12 months ago and it was rewarding to see Lynda Cornish offer her skills in the volunteer management team."

Key learnings throughout her business career have been taking the time to plan from the start, "which can save you a lot of heartache" and communication, such as learning to articulate your proposition, communicating with your team so everyone is on the same page and being succinct to get your point across.

□ Few people champion other people's business achievements more than Wheatbelt Business Network chief executive officer Caroline Robinson.

NAREMBEEN HISTORICAL SOCIETY— Final

Over the next two weeks we will be publishing this story written by Hazel TOOVEY (nee FRENCH).

Hazel is today the person who has lived the longest in Narembeen.

PIONEER FAMILY OF NAREMBEEN.

John Isaac FRENCH

Harriett FRENCH (nee FRANCIS)

The depression came and the family all lived in town and Mr FRENCH soon started a local dairy. The family lived side by side all building their own homes of hessian with iron roofs and cement floors. They were located on the northern end of town facing the now Merredin Road and it was known for many years as 'French Town'.

There were 18 grand children living here. The sons and son in laws now took on whatever jobs were available in the depression years such as shire work, wheat lumping, shearing and farm work and later Co-op bulk handling.

Golden Wedding Anniversary 1938

Mr John (Jack) FRENCH was a local shearer also went shearing up north. Mr Herbert (Bert) FRENCH joined CBH after wheat lumping and stayed on to become part of head office staff. Mr Walter FRENCH joined CBH also. Son in laws—Mr Bill COOPER joined the Shire to become foreman for 25 years. Mr Bob HOOD joined CBH. Mr HAYWARD did farm work then moved away north. Son Victor was killed in World War I.

There are still three original members of the family living at this time of writing in June 1981. Mrs Bessie COOPER and Mr Walter FRENCH in Narembeen and Mrs May YOUNG in Perth plus many direct descendants living in the district.

CORPORATE BOWLS

Started last Thursday

Sixteen teams competed which is great.

Of the eight games, six were fairly close with only two blow outs.

Special mention and thanks to the Blast Bowlers winners of the night who immediately donated their winnings back into the system. We will think of an appropriate use.

Runners Up Narembreen Spraying

The weather gods smiled on us with one of the best nights we could have asked for, let's hope our luck holds.

Please note a new start time of 6.30 p.m. just to give a little more time for those coming off shift.

A special thanks to all of those people who helped make the night what it was by providing the sausage sizzle, collecting entry fees and the like. Also to those who generously offered to help out in any way it is appreciated.

Guaranteed weekly winners & prizes along with a novelty competition each week. Sausage sizzle available. Don't forget the entry Fee $20 per team.

Eastern Districts Tennis Association – Junior Camp

The weekend of the 16th/17th saw EDTA's up and coming tennis stars come from far and wide to showcase their skills in Narembeen for the annual SunSmart Junior Tennis Camp. A massive thankyou to Brad Bassett and Keith O'Brien for their coaching expertise! It was clear that the kids enjoyed every minute of the weekend.

Saturday saw the kids knuckle down and put some work into the core aspects of their game. By the end of it there were some serves and forehands that even the adults were in awe of and it won't be long before some of these juniors get a call up for pennants. Lookout Tim, your spot might be on the line. While watching, it quickly became apparent that there is definitely some friendly competition on court and some fiery personalities to go with it. Little Jack Wanno vs Charlie Cusack for example...Although I think Jack may have overestimated his height going for a few volleys that I don't think any Wanless would execute. Points for trying though young man. Bowdan Cole did not stop running all day (maybe less red cordial next year) and when he wasn't challenging everyone to a game he could be seen running around with the ball trolley collecting every ball in sight.

The girls were elegant on court showcasing what they had to offer, even if there was a few holes in the racket hey Sarah Lines? Nothing could get past Sari Cusack on the net and was definitely the volley queen for the weekend. Apart from a slight ankle injury requiring some ice and a pump-up talk Rhienna Parsons was running everything down and showing the bigger girls what she had to offer.

The weekend wouldn't have been made possible without our esteemed junior coordinator Tim – whoops, I mean Holly Cusack who did a mountain of work behind the scenes. The reins were then handed over for the weekend (which Holly will never hear the end of). Massive thanks to Tim Cusack, Michael Wanless and Maddi Noack for braving the overnight duties with the kids. The girls changeroom was clearly the place to be with a pillow fight that was probably heard around town, ghost stories, and the odd dance routine before bed. Despite this the gals still managed to have their swags packed up before breakfast unlike the boys. This was mainly because Sari Cusack couldn't stop talking about bacon and we had to be first to breakfast...

Huge thanks to Emma Main, Narembeen's Catering Officer, for organising the roster and food. This is no small task and is a great fundraiser for the tennis club. Thanks to everyone who helped cater for the weekend and helped out in any way. To Scott Stirratt who was also around all weekend lending a hand wherever needed. On a personal note I would just like to say how blown away I was by the manners from the Narembeen kids. It didn't matter if you held a door open or gave them a juice box a thank you always followed and I never had to ask the kids twice to do something. An absolute credit to the community and the parents for raising such a good bunch of kids.

Finally, EDTA would like to acknowledge SunSmart as we received a grant of $1000 to help fund to the weekend.

Every week, every year, they unselfishly distribute our paper on top of running their own busy business. It is a thankless job, but one we rely on enormously and we are very lucky they are very willing to do it. So we thank them again as the "Fence Post" wouldn't survive without their commitment to us.

Historical Society Highlights

With 12 people attending including newcomers Gary and Mary Johns, an interesting meeting was held on Monday 18th October.

- We are researching the Wadderin Well (the one where the ladies gathered to do their washing). The Wadderin Committee has expressed interest in placing an information sign there as at the moment it is simply a hole in the ground. The Historical Society placed a sign there some years ago. There are other wells in the area too which need attention.
- We were asked for our opinion on the heritage aspect of the Goldfields Water Supply. With up-grades and placing most of the line below ground the plan is to possibly preserve some of the existing pipe above ground with reference to its history. We support the plan to preserve this heritage and will convey this sentiment.
- We have had several visitors to the town who have seen through the museums. All were favourably impressed with what they saw including the presentation of the town.
- Donations received: Jaycees minute books and other records from Gary Johns, a tea towel from the Hospital Auxiliary, and some dinner menus from Jan Kilminster at Bruce Rock.
- We are keen to update our list of plaques laid at various points in the district. This will require going through old minute books.
- A request has been made for plans of the Old Church for restoration purposes.
- Last busy bee for the year November 8th - filing at the History Centre and maybe some work at the RSL Museum.
- Our next meeting will be on November 15th at 11am then on to lunch at Myola to wind up the year.

CORRIGIN FARM IMPROVEMENT GROUP

Position: Communications Officer

ABOUT THE CORRIGIN FARM IMPROVEMENT GROUP

The Corrigin Farm Improvement Group is a progressive and vibrant non-profit organisation run by farmers for farmers. The group is an innovative and well-resourced grower group based in Corrigin, Western Australia. CFG services the Shires of Corrigin, Quairading, Kondinin, Kulin, Narembeen, and Bruce Rock. The group provides its members and the community with innovative, timely and relevant research, development and extension, and grower and industry network opportunities from all over Australia.

We are seeking a highly motivated and enthusiastic individual to lead our communications and marketing strategy.

THE POSITION

The Communications Officer is responsible for delivering an effective communication and marketing strategy that maximises stakeholder engagement and leads to greater impact of the group's activities and increased engagement of industry with the group's activities. Core activities include:

- Explore new and innovative communication channels that engage a greater proportion of our membership.

Fun Fact

Supermoons and Minimoons

The Moon's orbit around Earth is slightly oval shaped or elliptical. So, every month there's a time when the Moon is at its closest distance to Earth at about 363,300 kilometres away, known as perigee and another time when it is at its furthest distance from Earth at about 405,500 kilometres away and known as apogee.

When perigee coincides with the full Moon, it's popularly called a "Supermoon". And when the full Moon coincides with apogee? Well, it's a "Micromoon" or a "Minimoon"!

When the Moon is at its closest it will appear 17 percent bigger and 30 percent brighter than a Minimoon.

You can spot a Minimoon on the 19th November. Looking to the east, moonrise will occur at 7.06pm and on this night the moon will be furthest away from Earth in its orbit. Check it out to see if you think the Moon looks smaller than normal.

Tea With Venus | 8th-24th November

From the 8th November through to the 24th, Venus is making a complete transit across a familiar asterism, the Teapot! Formally recognised as a part of the constellation of Sagittarius, the teapot is easily identifiable, and even more so as the bright Venus makes its way through the cosmic crockery.

Remember, the teapot is upside down in the Southern Hemisphere. On the 8th, Venus is below the teapot spout and the crescent Moon is right beside the top of the teapot lid. On the 12th and 13th, Venus will appear in the centre of the teapot lid. And by the 19th, Venus marks the top of the teapot's handle.

When to look: Venus moves into the tea pot on the 8th, with a nearby moon, and completes its journey through by the 24th.

Which direction to look: North west

Scorpius | Spring

Can you find Scorpio this Spring? Learning to point out constellations is lots of fun, and one of the easiest to find is Scorpius the Scorpion. It's a lovely, large constellation that really does form the shape of a scorpion!

Scorpius, more commonly referred to as Scorpio, is a large constellation that actually looks like its namesake! Sometimes it's quite difficult to make out the shape of constellations, but you should have some success with Scorpius!

It is visible all through spring during the early evenings. It lies overhead at around 8pm and is a lovely, large constellation.

See if you can find the curve of Scorpio's body and the sting in its tail stretching up to the centre of the sky!

When to look: after 8pm during spring

Which direction to look: Directly overhead. Later in the evening, Scorpio sets in the west.

Something Interesting

See how many stars you can count in the constellation of Scorpio. Try this when you're in different places too. You'll soon see how dark night skies help bring out the stars!

Use your knowledge to become a Citizen Scientist for the Globe at Night! The Globe at Night is an international citizen-science program that's raising awareness of the impact of light pollution.

They are inviting Citizen Scientists to measure and submit their night sky brightness observations. It's easy to get involved. All you need is a computer or smart phone.

Mt Walker Tennis Club

Pennants were played on a Friday to accommodate a majority of team members having commitments in Perth on Saturday, thank you to all who were flexible to allow this to happen.

Whilst the score line was not as impressive as last week Mt Walker put up a strong fight going down to Narembeen 1, Mt Walker 11/122 to Narembeen 1 21/155. Whilst the sets were dominated by the townies, the game score was a lot better. We had another dual highness, 2 kings of Mt Walker both on 4 sets – King Kyle & King Trent.

It was a bit quiet on Sunday due to so many ladies being away, but the faithful turned up for a good hit and dinner. Karen managed to get a few snaps of our fantastic club members helping out at the club – looking good!!! And, Tammy, we hope Charlie helps this much with the dishes at home.

We have our club doubles champs this Sunday, so please make sure you get your names in to Maddie or Michael by Thursday. See you there! Dinner is 70s/80s inspired – get creative, dig out the old Women's Weekly cookbook or give your nanna a call.

A HUGE THANK YOU to TRENT DAVIS for repairing the gas regulator so we can safely run the barbeque and to LORA NICOLETTI for volunteering to take our recycling to Merredin. We truly do have amazing members!

HEALTH AND WELLBEING SURVEY

During October and November 2021, we are asking for your help creating a new Health and Wellbeing Plan for our Shire.

We want to hear your views about what good health and wellbeing means to you, and any difficulties you face in achieving that. Your feedback will help us identify community needs and areas for action so we can improve the health and wellbeing outcomes for everyone who lives, works and plays in our Shire, now and into the future.

Please follow the link below to complete our online survey, which takes about 15 minutes:

Narembeen CRC Update

Hello everyone! I hope you had a great week!

Last week 9 local ladies attended a workshop at the Pop-Up Shop on how to make a Kokedama. Thank you to Workshop facilitator Rachael Osborne, a women of many talents. An evening that was enjoyed by all.

Last Thursday we hosted a community breakfast as part of Mental Health Week. Thanks to everyone who came and helped raise awareness about the importance of mental health and wellbeing.

This years theme 'Mental Health starts with our Children' recognises how a person's mental health reflects the interaction of a lifetime of individual and lifestyle factors with a range of environmental, community and family risk factors. For both children and adults, taking care of basic needs for shelter, food, warmth and rest are essential to mental wellbeing.

We enjoyed some delicious food from The Co-Op Narembeen, did some mindful activities and listened to the Pre-Primary & Year1 kids sing 'Don't stop' from Fleetwood Mac. A song that reminds us that every day is a new day with a new start!

Thank you to Mrs Lucy Lines & Mrs Joey Cheetham for all their help and creative ideas. Thank you to Han Chitty for her help with the chalk paving murals. Thank you to James King & Sam Bald for cooking the BBQ, thanks to Dave Smoker, Bianca Currie and Joey Cheetham for donating the eggs and thank you to everyone for coming! Certainly a community effort!

And remember: 'If you wake up and don't want to smile, If it takes just a little while, Open your eyes and look at the day, You'll see things in a different way!' This event was proudly sponsored by Lotterywest and Western Australian Association for Mental Health.

We are so excited to be a recipient of the 2021 Go for 2&5 Children's Week Community Grant and can't wait to celebrate with all of you. Enjoy a fun day out with your family and friends at the Apex Park next Wednesday. Face Painting, Sausage Sizzle and many other fun games and activities included!! Thanks to Meerilinga, Promoting Positive Childhoods, Lotterywest, Healthway & the Department of Communities! Don't miss it!! We have some great activities planned for the little ones. All children of any age are welcome.

VERY LAST CHANCE TO LEAVE YOUR FEEDBACK ON OUR CRC: The CRC Customer Satisfaction Survey closes this Friday, 22 October. If you can help that would be muchly appreciated.

Narembeen Hospital Auxiliary

On Friday 15th October President Kerry Fricker welcomed family and friends to the Hospital Auxiliary's fourth St Luke's Day candlelighting service to remember those people who had passed away in the Narembeen Hospital in the past 12 months.

A candle was also lit for our past President Irene Edwards by her friends Di and Tony Miolini.

Guest speakers this year were Anne Hague and Joyce Contos from Central Ag Care Counselling Service.

They spoke on what triggers grief and recovering from grief.

After the service a lovely afternoon tea was enjoyed by all.

Thank you to the Hospital kitchen for contributing to it.

Also to Marj Clarke and Sharni Gil for helping with the admin stuff.

Thank you to all the Auxiliary ladies for your on going support and help.

THANK YOU TO AUTUMN CLUB MEMBERS

A note received from Seafarers Port Hedland acknowledging donations from Autumn Club

To the wonderful Anglican congregation of St. Paul's.

Not long ago we, the Port Hedland Mission to Seafarers, received a beautiful donation from you. Because of Covid the Seafarers are still not allowed to leave their ships and have a few hours R&R at the Centre, nor am I as a Chaplain allowed to visit the crews onboard. But we are still caring for them with care packages and through chat links. At the moment we are preparing 2000 care packages for Christmas day. On this day we will be delivering a care package to every single seafarer in Port and to those waiting out in anchorage. Each of the care packages will include a lovingly handcrafted beanie, many of which were knitted by your very own Autumn Club. Thank you all so very much for your donations, thoughts and prayers. Maybe someday I could come down and visit you and thank you in person.

Blessings, Chaplain Glenn

care with purpose

We are looking for caring and passionate staff to provide transport, domestic, meal preparation, shopping, personal care, respite and social support. A Cert. III in Aged Care or similar experience would be great, but we'd also love to hear from anyone interested in a career in home care as we can offer on-the-job training and buddy shifts. You must have a reliable car, current driver's license and police clearance.

We pay casual rates with fuel and travel allowances. Work as little or often as you like. We're flexible and family friendly.
