Over the Fence....

Well it is another lean week with very little sport news and no school news to report on this week. We have managed to produce a Fencepost though.

Our thanks goes to the Roadhouse and the CRC for distributing extra copies while the Post Office has been on limited hours. Many thanks to the staff who have manned our important utility to the town.

The financial year has ended and it is now coming to the end of July and many subscriptions are becoming due as also the rates for the council and water. Let us hope that the electricity rebate that has been promised becomes available soon to help ease the burden a little.

There have been a lot of travelers through the town of late. all stopping to admire the sights that our town has to offer and complimenting on how neat and tidy the area is. Thanks to our Shire Staff for keeping it up to this high standard.

The CRC is still functioning very well without their manager, a big task to ask of these young girls but they are coping admirably.

NAREMBEEN

From July 12—July 26 our Sub-Centre will have limited crew available.

There will be longer than usual wait times for an Ambulance as they will more than likely be travelling from another location.

We currently have 10 on-road volunteers at our Sub-Centre, 5 Emergency Management Technicians, 3 Emergency Management Assistants and 2 Emergency Management Responders.

If you have thought about volunteering in our town, think about St John's. It is not all the horrible things that people often use as an excuse for volunteering, more often than not it is a drive to Merredin with a patient or to the airstrip to the RFDS plane. The current volunteers would be happy to work around what you are interested in and your level of commitment. Training involves 1 weekend to induct and get you up to date and then once a month for 8-10 months of the year.

For more information on becoming a volunteer call Ian Mortimore on 0428 647 090 or Debbie Hall on 0457 758 882. WE NEED YOU.

POLICE NEWS

Narembeen Police Station, 7 Longhurst Street, Narembeen, WA 6369
Phone: (08) 9045 6050

Hello,

Hope everyone is well.

Narembeen had a Commercial Burglary and Stealing offence at Afgri Equipment. A Safe, Cash & LED Flood Lights were stolen as a result. The incident occurred sometime overnight on Wednesday 5 July and early Thursday morning 6 July. If you have any information in relation to the offence, please give us a call 9045 6050.

If you have a business in town, please consider installing a monitored security alarm system. From my experience, attending numerous Burglary offences. A good alarm system installed by a licensed installer, deters crooks from spending a long period in your premises and stripping it bare.

Secondly, CCTV is also invaluable. It will enhance the physical security of your premises and assist in the ID of any offender/s. Use a licensed installer <https://www.saiwa.asn.au/>

Also, disappointingly we received a complaint of Graffiti (Criminal Damage) at Narembeen Recreation Centre. A yellow spray paint can was used to vandalise the building. The can used was 'Boston' yellow spray paint. The incident occurred sometime between Monday 3 July – Wednesday 5 July. If you have any information in relation to this matter, please come and see us or if you wish to remain anon, call Crime Stoppers 1800 333 000.

Stay Safe out there

Kind Regards

Narembeen CRC Update

Hello everyone!

Last Friday, our manager, Vanessa had her last day as she ventures off on Maternity Leave for the next 12 months. We will miss your supportive, driven and happy face every day in the office but wish you so much luck and happiness for the arrival of your little one. We hope you enjoy your time off, but please make sure you come back!!!

The CRC will function as usual so don't forget about us! We will gain a new team member at the end of October to fill in for Vanessa, and we are so excited to welcome her, as we think she will truly be a great and reliable addition to our team.

GOODBYE & GOODLUCK VANESSA!!

NAIDOC Week

Last Friday, we took 7 school students to Merredin for a Njaki Njaki Cultural Tour for a NAIDOC Week activity by Mick Hayden. Mick took the students on a 2 hour walk through bushland just outside of Merredin. While on the tour, the kids learnt about the significance of the bushland such as it being the site where Mick and his family grew up. They learnt about Mick's family and how they lived on the land, the bush tucker that they used, like yams and sandalwood nuts. Later in the tour, we hiked to the top of Merredin Peak and then down the rock to the Merredin Railway Dam. After the tour, we had a Subway lunch at the Apex Park. Thank you to Kathy Hindmarsh for driving the bus and to Lucy Lines for helping us out throughout the day.

School Holiday Activity—Movie

This Thursday, at 10.30am we have the school holiday movie happening here at the CRC! If your children are interested please contact the CRC!

Make sure to bring your own bean bag/pillow!

Morning Coffee Club

Next week, 19 July, the Morning Coffee Club will take place at the Narembeen Pub for a pub lunch and some games, starting at 11.30am. Please contact the CRC if you are interested in attending.

Truck Licence

We still have some spots available for the truck licence happening in Mid-July. To register please contact the CRC asap. This will be the final truck licence for the year, so if you need it done prior to harvest please get in contact now.

CRC Memberships are now due!!

Narembeen Golf

The Captain's Trophy- so prestigious and sought after.

On a rare, beautiful, warmish day they came out to take the prize. Some seemed to have regretted it as they spent an enormous amount of time in the bush. Horror of horrors, Mic Tovey was seen in the bush! The women following found it very entertaining. Of course, we never go into the bush.

Sam Bald tolerated a dubious partnering with John Currie and Brian Cusack and came in thinking he had been playing with Greg Vaughan and Damon Hayter. He has found out that golf doesn't get easier the longer you play but went on to win Aaron Lyons' Trophy with a great 70 net from Paul Wanless 70, Tim Cusack 74, Ben Hunter 75, John Currie 77 and Mic Toovey 76. Paul also took home the gross with 84 and Long Dong #1 went to Garrick Yandle, NP #9 Sam Bald and Ben Hunter the Best 2nd #12 and #16.

Wednesday, the Di Miolini trophy was on offer with Kellie Mortimore taking everything before her again with 37 points . Her handicap took another hit to 37 as Noela Cole had 35 and Marie Sprigg 34. Miranda Noack won NP #9 and Amy Hardam the LP #13. Here she is telling all and sundry she can't putt!

Sunday saw Darien up the ante with a super 35pts from Maxine Miolini 33 and Joan Cusack 30. Darien is certainly benefitting from her lessons and seems to be enjoying!!! golf. Chris Padfield won NP #15 and someone won LP #7!

On the weekend people travelled to Kondinin and Ardath with Tim Cusack and Sam Bald R/up to the nett and Paul Wanless not sure about his status. Bit of a worry Paul.

Don't forget that the Ladies Day on Friday requires men kitchen "maids" and the BC Cup needs women to do their usual duties. Check with Maxine to see if you are needed, please.

Good luck to everyone and may the golfing gods be kind and the weather be warm.

MEN'S NIGHT GAME

Narembeen Men 1 def Kellerberrin Men 0

Wednesday the 5th saw the Hawks take on Kellerberrin for an evening game on the turf in Bruce Rock.

This was the second time this season the men's team faced off against Keller, and after game one, it was evident this was going to be no walk in the park.

The first half was a scrappy and hard-fought battle by both teams with solid backline defence and minimal scoring shots outside of short corners presenting.

The third quarter saw the Hawks begin moving the ball better through the centre allowing more opportunities for the strikers to attack in the D. The score remained 0-0 till the eight minute mark of the last quarter where Tom Latham managed a tomahawk into the net, cementing the 1-0 victory!

Special mentions to Sam Nation and Wes Taylor for winning players choice BOG, and to Gus for the chest height deflection at goal that ended over the fence!

HAWK TALK
VERSUS CORRIGIN JULY 1
NAREMBEEN FOOTBALL CLUB

Going the distance...

One of the great things about footy is that it's played over such a large period of time. I would argue that is probably the longest invasion and contact sport in the world. To win a game of footy you must keep working for roughly two hours of time. Four quarters, which at a senior level can go for between twenty-five to thirty minutes or sometimes even more. Like a boxing match you have to be able to go the distance. I would also argue that, as a result, it is the toughest game in the world.

The early rounds against Corrigin on Saturday saw the Hawks have trouble shaking the Tigers off. They were on top through the middle of the ground early on and it was clear that their collective pace was worrying the Tigers. However, to the credit of their opposition, they were unable to take advantage of the dominance they had. Led by veteran Graydon Bartlett the Tigs defended well. That was however only the first round.

The second round saw the Hawks start to take more advantage of their dominance through the middle of the ground. Initially coming off half back and then through the middle of the ground Thomas Baldwin led this increased dominance for the Hawks. His genuine pace, two-sided delivery and high-quality decision making set a standard for the Hawks that was quickly followed by the rest of the side.

The Spinks boys continued what has been fine season for both of them with some wonderfully daring decisions with the ball. Cody Duncan got back to his ball carrying best, kicking two goals from long range which is when he is at his most dangerous. Jimmy Kennedy, off his wing, simply ran far too hard for his opponents while Nick Winters showed he is just getting better with an ability to move the ball out of congestion. By half time had kept the Tigs goalless and kicked into gear.

Footy is a midfielder's game, no doubt, however what it is sometimes lost in the conversation is the importance and the quality of a good defensive effort. Chris Shaw and Jay Gill have been holding down the last line of the Hawks defence all year. On Saturday Gill found himself on Tigers quality forward Michael McLeod. McLeod is a good player, good forward, strong stocky operator who is hard to move, a great kick and has a superb pair of hands. He's been kicking a lot of goals. On Saturday Gill kept him goalless. He timed his spoils beautifully. Showed strength in the wrestle and took a contested mark late in the game that just put a stamp on what was a wonderful effort.

A twelve-goal win was testament to the fact that the Hawks have this wonderful capacity to play all the rounds, to go the distance. The Tigs made it tough for the Hawks early, but you must go the distance. The Hawks were able to absorb what Corrigin were able to offer and then the further it went the more they were able to pull away to what was a commanding result in the end.

Hawks	15-17	107
Corrigin	4-8	32

Best: Baldwin, Jay Gill, Winters, James, Kennedy, Duncan, Solomon

Taking your turn.....

If you get the privilege of being around enough, not in sport but in life, there is something you realise. You realise that for a large majority of the population that there are days where you're the bug and days where you are the windscreen. What this really means is that sometimes you win and sometimes you lose. Further though into this is the fact that when you get to win, make the most of it for this too shall pass.

In 2019, just four years ago the Ressies went to Corrigin with just 16 men and got unceremoniously smashed. It was their turn to cop one and did they cop one. Four years on, with granted not many if any of that '19 side pulling the boots on, the Ressies got a chance to take their turn.

Led by the Brown boys, Nikau and Jeikwjuan through the middle of the ground the boys were on top early. In what started as a tough contested game of footy the boys kept taking risks by running with the footy and kicking to dangerous spots into what was a reasonable wind. Archie Saunders was also influential early as he showed his growing class and toughness in the clinches.

Matthew Poultney continued his growth as a player in the second term as he used his pace and fitness top get to a lot of contests and become a dangerous forward, He would kick the most unlikely of goals and be a leading influence in a quarter where the boys would have thirteen shots at goal and kick 6-7. There was a great spread of contributions coming from all over the ground. A half back line of Cooper Sprigg, Kyle Della and Trent Davis held firm and showed a wonderful attacking vent. Sprigg especially got the side to get the ball in space when coming off that line.

58-0 at half time showed that the Ressies were on top. After the long break the Tigers, to their credit responded to their situation. They held the Ressies to just two shots at goal and created some opportunities for themselves. Will Gray was strong again at full back while the Ressies had to absorb and then try and shake off their plucky opponents. They would get their chance.

Finishing with the breeze the boys would have nine shots at goal in the last quarter. The Brown boys and Saunders were again stand outs. While new Ressies Danny De Gouveia and Johannes Reisch showed they are quickly picking up the most unique of games. They both kicked two goals while De Gouveia ran around across half forward with such purpose that, by the end of proceedings it would seem like he'd been doing it for years.

It would end up being a 101-point win. The Tigers had fought hard in the contest, but the Ressies had got them for pace on the spread and options in the forward line. Veteran Mike Mortimore would kick five goals which would include a wonderful goal that seemed to bend around the posts. There would be eight goal kickers in what was a dominant display. The Ressies took their turn and took it well and full credit to them for hopefully they are all aware that there will be days in the future where this too has passed.

Ressies	15-14	104
Corrigin	0-3	3

THE ONLY DANNY IN TOWN....

Eon Smith (South Africa), Gareth Okane (Ireland), Dario Schwalbach (Brazil) and Christoph Portmann (Somewhere in Europe I can't remember where) are all names that would mean nothing to the everyday person but mean everything to the history of the Naremben Footy Club. For these fellahs, and more, are all examples of how the footy club has a history of doing their absolute best to welcome players from all parts of the world. If they show an interest in our great game they get welcomed, they get taught the game on and off the ground and everyone hopes they have a great time. Okane and Smith were even lucky enough to go home as premiership players. As 2023 takes a breath for Country Week we can now add Danny De Goveia to that list

De Goveia is originally from the eastern cape of South Africa. He worked as a mechanic over in a small town called Adelaide, or maybe Cradock, and his much better half Janelle worked as a teacher. It was a different world to what we know here. Farms would crop twice a year and often have up to forty workers on their books. In late 2021, or perhaps early 2022, they uprooted their family and moved them from what they knew in the eastern cape to what they didn't know in Naremben. With their two young children they made their way through at least one stint in quarantine so Danny could take up his position at AFGRI. It would have been a big move at a tough time.

A keen golfer and a rugby fan, Danny found his way down to the footy club at the start of 2023. A thoughtful kind of operator, he started the season in a back pocket and was quick to revel in the contest. Experience in rugby was clear in the way that he enjoyed a tackle and could stand up under the pressure of one applied on him. To his credit he was quick to become a reliable kick and showed a handy turn of speed. Danny is a quick study and was quickly a strong contributor for the Ressies. He even kicked two goals in their 101-point win over Corrigin on Saturday.

He has also become a loved member of the changeroom. He is always quick to smile and laugh and is nothing but positive with his teammates. There is even a much-vaunted rumour going around town that he has also staked his claim as being the only Danny in town. The story has it that one evening during the season he met another Danny from Naremben. Then he proceeded to play said Danny for the right of being called Danny in town and beat him. Now whether that competition was in a game of pool or a wrestle in the beer garden or is completely made up is unclear but also irrelevant. The story just shows you what a quality person the Hawks have found in De Goveia.

The footy club have long done their best to be a 'everyone is welcome' kind of organisation. They have a long history of international operators who have come to the club and have a great time. Most have only come for the one year as exchangee workers on farms, made a great impression and headed off home. Danny De Goveia however has brought his wonderful family with him and looked to make Naremben their home. He has shown himself to be an operator of the highest quality, he has learned our game so very quickly and helped his mates have a great time in doing so. The footy club is all the better for having the only Danny in town.

CARNIVAL SUCCESS.....

Over the middle weekend of the school holidays the Eastern Districts Football League once again sent a side down to Country Week. Narembeen continued a long held tradition of supporting this side with eight Hawks players accepting selection. Tom Baldwin, Nic Winters, Connor and Heath Spinks, Chris Shaw, James Kennedy and Cody Duncan were all part of the side that was coached by former Hawks mentor Greg Vaughan.

Although the side would get through the carnival without a win, Hawks veteran Cody Duncan would earn himself an All Stars jumper. This is quite the deal, at the end of each carnival the West Australian Country Footy League convenes a panel of selectors who take in as much of the carnival as possible and pick the best twenty players across the three divisions and twenty six side. An impressive achievement by Narembeen product Cody Duncan.

Grain Brokers Australia Weekly Market Report

Written by Peter McMeekin on July 11, 2023

Russian wheat exports continue at record pace...

Shipments of Russian grain to export customers across the globe reached a record in the 2022/23 marketing year (July to June) despite the mounting Western sanctions, and that looks set to continue in the new marketing year with Russia sitting on massive old crop supplies and another big harvest on the way.

Russian Minister of Agriculture Dmitry Patrushev announced on Friday that last season's grain exports totalled 60 million metric tonne, leading to a substantial increase in export revenues. Furthermore, the minister added that Russia plans to export 55MMT of grain in the current marketing year and emphasised that export capacity could be increased if required.

According to the minister, most of the grain went to "friendly countries", with Russia pivoting its agricultural exports to customers that have not supported the Western sanctions against Moscow. These nations now receive around 87 per cent of total grain exports, with destinations including China, Turkiye, Egypt, Bangladesh, Algeria, and Pakistan.

IKAR, the Russian Institute for Agricultural Market Studies, put 2022/23 wheat exports at a record 48MMT, which equates to more than 22.3 per cent of global wheat trade based on the United States Department of Agriculture's worldwide export estimate of 215.56MMT.

Black Sea consultancy SovEcon also raised its Russian wheat export forecast, adding a further 1.5MMT last week to total 47.2MMT. Furthermore, SovEcon raised its estimate for total Russian wheat exports last month by 300,000 metric tonne to a June record of 3.5MMT. This compares to 1.0MMT in 2022 and the June average of 1.4MMT.

The gong for the biggest shipper of Russian wheat in 2022/23 went to Grain Gates LLC, a new kid on the block with reported links to Demetra, the second biggest exporter of Russian wheat in 2021/22, and the sanctioned state-owned lender VTB Bank PJSC. While both have distanced themselves from the new trading entity, registered in June 2022, it is run by Ilya Aliev, the former head of trading at Demetra. With wheat exports of 7.22MMT, Grain Gates edged out TD Rif, the top exporter of Russian wheat in the previous seven seasons.

Russia has been dominating global wheat tenders in recent months, particularly into Mediterranean and Middle Eastern destinations, and that is unlikely to change with new crop supplies about to hit the market. The outlook is the complete antithesis of this time last year when new crop European Union wheat could easily find a home amid the war-induced Black Sea trade disruptions. The latest Algerian milling wheat purchase of 630,000MT, traditionally supplied by France, is expected to be sourced from Russia, as is Tunisia's 100,000MT soft wheat tender last week.

Following a record harvest last year and potentially the second biggest harvest on record about to hit the bins, the 2023/24 season could easily herald another export record as Moscow scrambles to secure hard currency to prop up its failing economy. The unofficial Russian floor price is currently believed to be US$230 per metric tonne free on board (FOB), which is still at least US$25 cheaper than Western European supplies.

However, even the cheaper Russian wheat faces demand headwinds as payment problems beset Middle Eastern and North African buyers. A number of countries looking to buy the cheaper Russian wheat are facing balance of payment difficulties. Add the sanctions complications, and it becomes extremely difficult for these countries to access Western funding assistance for such purchases.

The harvesting campaign has commenced in the south of the country. As of July 5, farmers had harvested 4MMT of grain, around 1.2MMT of which is wheat. While it is far too early to determine an accurate yield trend, field data suggests that early yields are lower than last year, and the average has fallen week-on-week. Reports from southern Russia's winter wheat areas of Krasnodar and Stavropol call early wheat yields 12 per cent lower than last year and slightly below the 5-year average.

Agricultural analytics firm Agritel increased its Russian wheat harvest estimate last week to 85.7MMT, up 3 per cent from its April forecast of 83.2MMT but still 16.8 per cent lower than last year's record of 103MMT. Nonetheless, anything above 85MMT would make it the second-biggest wheat crop on record.

According to Agritel, good spring weather in central and southern Russia has promoted yield expectations, but the spring wheat production areas, particularly Siberia and the Urals, are being tormented by dryness, and production is likely to suffer. Lengthy periods of extreme heat are expected this week, and precipitation is a notable absentee. The risk is the hot weather spreads into the later planted winter wheat areas, making further upward revisions unlikely.

Meanwhile, Russian authorities have effectively bought the Black Sea grain corridor to a halt, with the most recent inspections of incoming vessels completed on June 28. The last three vessels navigating the corridor under the grain deal loaded cargoes at the Ukrainian port of Odesa reportedly over the weekend and were due to depart on Monday.

With the corridor agreement set to expire on July 17, Russia has reportedly rejected a European Union compromise proposal to connect a new Russian entity, instead of the state-owned agricultural bank, to the SWIFT payment system to facilitate an extension of the Black Sea grain deal. The Kremlin has adopted a more hardline rhetoric ahead of the expiry, saying it saw no reason to extend the grain deal beyond July 17, as the West had acted in an "outrageous" way over the agreement. However, it assured poor nations that Russian grain exports would continue.

Russia knows the stakes are high. Over 32 million tonnes of wheat, corn, barley and other grains have been shipped from Ukraine ports to 45 countries on three continents under the initiative. Russia has complained that not enough reaches the world's poorer countries, but the United Nations argues that it has benefited those states by helping lower food prices by more than 20 per cent globally since March last year. Negotiations continue. Call your local Grain Brokers Australia representative on 1300 946 544 to discuss your grain marketing needs.
